1 The [Department of Child Protection] is authorized to investigate any suspected violation
2 of the act. If it determines that the act has been violated, the [Department] may respond in 3 several ways ranging from providing reunification support and services to the adoptive parents
4 and child to bringing legal proceeding to terminate the parentage rights of the adoptive parents to 5 the child.

6
7 Unregulated transfers are often aided by advertising, frequently on the internet, for the 8 transfer of a child. Therefore, the proposed act provides that a person may not advertise that the 9 person will transfer, facilitate a transfer of, or receive permanent physical custody of a child in 10 violation of the act. Certain exceptions are made to the prohibition. The Department of Child
11 Protection may bring an action to enjoin a person from advertising in violation of this provision.
12 A person who violates this provision is guilty of a [class B misdemeanor].

4 TRAINING.

5 (a) Before referring a child to a prospective adoptive parent in a high-risk adoption, a

7 required by Section 4 and the preparation and training required by Section 5.

8 (b) Failure to ensure that a prospective adoptive parent receives the information,
9 preparation or training required by subsection (a) is a violation of the duties of a child-placing 10 agency under law of this state other than this [act] under which the agency is licensed.

11 Legislative Note: Before adopting this act, a legislature should review the state's child-placing 12 agency licensing law to determine whether an amendment is needed to implement subsection (b).

13 SECTION 4. INFORMATION TO PROSPECTIVE ADOPTIVE PARENT. Unless 14 prohibited by law of this state other than this [act] or the child's country of origin, a child-placing 15 agency shall ensure that a prospective adoptive parent in a high-risk adoption is provided with:

17 (A) the child's family, cultural, racial, religious, ethnic, linguistic, and educational 18 background; and

8 in a high-risk adoption receives at least [30] hours of adoption preparation and training, if

- 11 issues that a child may experience in adoption;

2 adoption, including how an adoptive parent might access resources to avoid disruption or

8 (A) the differing needs of children based on their ages, backgrounds, and length
9 of time in institutionalization or foster care; and

10 (B) the time-management requirements and other challenges of adopting more
11 than one child;

12 (12) the prohibition under Section 6; and

13 (13) other matters the child-placing agency considers important to a successful adoption.

14 SECTION 6. PROHIBITED TRANSFER.

15 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), an individual who intends to 16 relinquish the legal rights and responsibilities as a parent or guardian of an adopted child may not

12 the [Department] shall investigate under law of this state other than this [act].

13 (b) If the [Department of Child Protection] determines that an adoptive parent has 14 violated Section 6, the [Department] may:

15 (A) provide reunification support and services to the adoptive parent and child;

16 (B) take the adopted child into temporary protective custody under law of this
17 state other than this [act];

18 (C) bring an action in court under law of this state other than this [act] to 19 terminate the legal rights of the adoptive parent to parentage of the child; or

20 (D) take other action under law of this state other than this [act] to protect the 21 interests of the adopted child.

22 SECTION 8. PROHIBITED ADVERTISING.

23 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a person may not knowingly advertise

8 other placement.

9 (b) The [Department of Child Protection] may bring an action to enjoin a person from 10 advertising in violation of subsection (a).

11 (c) This section does not apply to advertising by:

12 (1) the [Department of Child Protection] or a child-placing agency licensed
13 under the law of this state other than this [act] to place a child for adoption, in a licensed 14 institution, foster home, or group home, or in the home of a guardian; or

15 (2) a foster-care center, adoption-resource center, or post-adoption resource center
16 licensed by this state under law of this state other than this [act].

17 (d) This section does not prohibit an attorney licensed to practice law in this state from 18 advertising the attorney's availability to provide services relating to adoption of a child.

19 (e) A person that violates this section is guilty of a [class B misdemeanor].

2 duties or responsibilities imposed on and after the effective date of this [act].]

3 [SECTION 11. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this [act] or its application to
