New Members

Kentucky has appointed two new members to the ULC. Mark Sandlin is an attorney in Louisville, and replaces Marcia Milby Ridings. Pierce Whites is with the Legislative Research Commission in Frankfort, and replaces John Gillig. Commissioner Turney Berry was re-appointed as commissioner.

In Rhode Island, our newest member is Joseph F. Rodgers, a justice on the Rhode Island Superior Court in Providence.

In Utah, Eric Weeks, Deputy General Counsel with the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel in Salt Lake City, has been appointed commissioner, replacing John L. Fellows who resigned as commissioner. Rebecca Rockwell, also with the Office of Legislative Research, is Utah's newest Associate Member.

Condolences

Joanne C. Pomeroy, wife of Kansas Commissioner Elwaine Pomeroy, passed away on February 26, 2010; Joanne was 77. Elwaine and Joanne were married for more than 59 years. A memorial service for Joanne was held at Trinity Lutheran Church in Topeka on March 1. In addition to her husband, Joanne is survived by her two sons, Duane and Carl; by her twin sister Jeanine, and by numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Joanne will be missed by all her friends in the Conference. Our sincere condolences are sent to Elwaine and his family.

Dorie Young, widow of Oregon Commissioner Oglesby Young, passed away February 26, 2010; Dorie was 89. Oge Young was a commissioner from 1982 until his death in 2003, and Dorie accompanied her husband to numerous annual meetings. A service in Dorie's memory will be held Saturday, March 20, at Christ Episcopal Church in Lake Oswego, Oregon. Dorie is survived by her daughters Gretchen Lobitz and Karen Watts, her son Oge Young III, and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Dorie will be missed by all her friends in the Conference.
