Legislative Update

It's now official: we've closed the books on the 2008 Legislative Year. We ended the year with 185 introductions and 87 enactments – one of our best years for “off year.” Oklahoma and Utah each finished the year with six enactments; Colorado was not far behind with five enactments. For the second straight year, the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act led all acts with 15 new enactments this year; the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds finished a strong second with 12 enactments.

New Members

Our newest commissioner in Tennessee is Effie V. Bean, an attorney in Memphis.

In Delaware, Anne Reigle has been appointed commissioner. Ms. Reigle is an attorney in Dover.

In Pennsylvania, Roger H. Caffier has been appointed commissioner. Mr. Caffier is with the Office of the General Counsel in the Governor's Office in Harrisburg.

In Wisconsin, Mike Weiden has been appointed commissioner, replacing Walter Kelly. Mr. Weiden is an attorney in Madison.
